So when Moses
saw that all the work was done
just as the Lord
had commanded,
he blessed them.

Exodus
39:43
